Matt Mullican

Working in various media (video, sculpture, monoprints, computer graphics), Mullican has created a unique cosmology. Oil-stick rubbings of reliefs feature his personal lexicon of geometric symbols, international signage (those stout stick figures), and architectural views; a bulletin board festooned with yellowed newspaper clippings and photos of a cadaver, a weathered doll's face, and overturned soil betray a more material grounding than that of his father, Lee Mullican (see above). *Tracy Williams, 313 W 4th, 212-229-2757.
